

YOUNG ENTREPRENEURS CONSORTIUM

Inspiring young minds for great futures

2014–2015 Impact By the Numbers

96

students participated in apprenticeships and internships.

60

cross-content problem-based learning units developed.

4

higher education partners.

12

business and community partners.

55%

Dual enrollment participation is projected to increase 55 percent.

Students received $57,500 in scholarships through Believe in Ohio.

35 teachers are in programs that will credential them to teach dual enrollment.

More than 2,000 students participated in work-based learning opportunities this year.

2,135 students participated in problem-based learning units.

15 districts have established 21st century classrooms that include makerspaces, 1-to-1 technology, mobile labs, and flexible space learning labs.